FARM NOTES: The Orioles farm system had a combined 433-384 (.530) won-lost record last season. . . . Over the past four campaigns, Orioles' minor league clubs are 1652-1398 (.542), best record among the 20 major league organizations in that period. . . .

The Orioles have added Miami to their system for 1966 and dropped Tri-City (Northwest League) and Appleton (Midwest) . . . Stockton and Tri-City won pennants in 1965 . . . Elmira finished second in the Eastern League, only one game out . . . Manager Earl Weaver, who has been promoted from Elmira to Rochester for 1966, has never finished out of the first division in 9 years as a pilot in the Orioles' minor league system.

The Birds will play Rochester in an exhibition game at Rochester on July 25. . . . There were five no-hitters pitched in the Orioles' system last year, two of them by Eddie Watt and one by Ed Barnowski, both of whom are now on the big league roster.

There will be 43 trips by air, including 31 charter flights (United Air Lines will be the carrier on 38 of the airplane jaunts), 15 by bus and 4 by train . . . The total cost of these city-to-city travels will be an estimated $103,000 . . .

This exceeded by two feet the only other drive ever hit over the hedge . . . That one was by "Boog" Powell 469′ to the same area off Boston's Don Schwall on June 22, 1962 . . . Aside from these there have been two drives into the hedge on the fly (approx. 450′), one by Powell in 1965 and the other by Mickey Mantle in 1954 . . .

No one has ever hit a ball completely out of the ballpark, i.e. over the stands in left or right field . . .

Born in Takoma Park, Md. but now lives in Baltimore . . . Led club in wins (15) and strikeouts (130) and tied Milt Pappas for most innings (221) in 1965 . . . Lost four of first five decisions, then went 14-6 the rest of the way . . . Pitched particularly well from August 11 to the end of the season . . . In 11 starts over that period, the club was 9-2, though Steve was involved in only 6 decisions of which he won 5 . . . He went 9 innings 6 times in that span, worked 91 innings and yielded only 59 hits and 15 runs (all earned) for an era of 1.48 . . . Finished up with a flurry by pitching a 3-hitter on last day of season to beat Cleveland's ace Sam McDowell, 2-1 . . .

His 2.69 era was best of career . . . Pitched three 3-hitters and combined with Stu Miller and Dick Hall on two others . . . Also collaborated with Stu on a 4-hitter . . . Was 4-0 vs. Angels, allowing only 4 runs in 33.1 innings over 5 appearances (1.08 era) . . . Yielded only 1 home run in his first 64 innings, then gave up 15 in last 157 frames . . .

Was 2-0 vs. Yankees and is now 6-1 against them in last two years (4-0 against Jim Bouton) and 13-9 lifetime . . . Has beaten New York more often than any other Oriole pitcher, active or retired . . . Suffered pinched nerve in middle finger of throwing hand on June 8 and didn't start again until June 23 . . .

In 5 starts vs. Indians, Steve was only 1-2 despite fact he yielded only 8 earned runs in total of 36 frames (2.00 era) . . . Teammates didn't score a run for him while he was a pitcher of record until the 7th inning of the 5th start (last day of year) when he beat McDowell, 2-1, on Bowens' 9th inning homer . . . Had not had luxury of run in first 33 innings vs. Indians . . . Steve and McDowell hooked up in a scoreless duel September 4 . . . Steve went 9 and Sam went 10, neither allowing a run . . . Stu Miller finally won, 1-0, over Tiefenauer in the 11th . . .

In army six month program during winter following 1960 season, then was recalled to active duty in October 1961 and was not released until July 1962 . . . Combination of army duty, which limited pitching to weekends except when on leave from Ft. Bragg and a later bout with mononucleosis which put him on disabled list for month and a half, restricted him to 140 innings in 1962 . . .

Finnish ancestry . . . Worked for Lawrence A. Beck Company in Baltimore, and for the Orioles as after-dinner speaker and season ticket salesman during winter . . . He and wife, Pat (nee: Longworth) were married in January 1965 . . .

*Came to Baltimore with John Orsino and Mike McCormick from San Francisco in deal for Bill Hoeft, Jack Fisher and Dick Coker on 12/15/62.

Born in Northampton, Mass., but now makes his permanent home in San Carlos, Calif. Selected as "Most Valuable Oriole" in 1965 by vote of traveling baseball writers and announcers under sponsorship of Maryland Sportsboosters . . . It was second time in three years with Birds he has won this award . . . He is the only pitcher ever chosen, and he and Brooks Robinson who has been picked three times are the only multiple winners in the club's 12 year history . . . Finished 7th in A.L. "MVP" voting . . .

Was 14-7 with 21 saves to set club record for most wins by a reliefer and most relief points (35) . . . Was second in majors behind Eddie Fisher (37) . . . In three years with O's he is 26-22 with 66 saves, 92 relief points, has appeared in 204 games, worked 328 innings, allowed 86 earned runs and has a 2.36 era . . . Vs. each club lifetime (W-L, Saves): Bos. (1-4, 8); Calif. (3-3, 9); Chi. (2-0, 7); Cleve. (2-3, 8); Det. (4-2, 8); K. C. (4-0, 7); Minn. (4-3, 7); N. Y. (3-3, 5); Wash. (3-4, 7) . . .

Got off to slow start in 1965 . . . In first three appearances, all vs. Boston, he was 0-2, had yielded 8 hits and 7 runs in 7.2 innings . . . From that point on he didn't give up a run in six weeks . . . In 17 appearances starting April 29 he worked 31 consecutive scoreless innings, yielded only 11 hits, walked 6, fanned 29, won four and saved five . . . The streak ended June 9 when Jim King, first hitter to face him, homered for Washington to beat him . . . However, immediately after that he started on another string of 13 games in which he yielded only 2 runs and was 2-0 with 7 saves thru July 10 . . . So, from April 29 until losing on July 15, Stu yielded only 3 runs in 54.1 frames (0.49 era), won 6, lost 1 and saved 12 in 31 appearances . . .

Saved four games each for Barber and McNally, and three for Pappas . . . Three clubs failed to score all year off him: Cleveland (9 inn., 4 app.), California (14.1 inn., 10 app.) and N. Y. (16.2 inn., 7 app.) . . . Two others were limited to one run: Chicago (9.2 inn., 6 app.) and Detroit (18.2 inn., 9 app.) . . .

Despite fact that he picked up five relief points against Boston (he was 1-2 with 4 saves), Stu had considerable trouble with the Red Sox who touched him up for 22 hits and 15 runs (all earned) in 19.1 innings for a 6.98 era in 11 appearances . . . Against the rest of the league he had a 0.90 era (99.2 frames and 10 e.r.) . . . Washington, however, was the toughest club for Stu . . . He was 1-3 against the Nats with no saves though he yielded only 3 earned runs in 11.1 innings over 6 games . . . Jim King victimized him twice in the tenth inning, once with a home run and once with a 2-out game winning single, and he lost another in the 12th on a throwing error.

Yielded only five homers all year . . . Led league in 1963 with 31 points (5 wins, 26 saves) and set A.L. records for games (71) and games finished (59) but both marks have since been erased . . . Also led N.L. in points once with 26 in 1961 to capture first of his two SPORTING NEWS' awards . . .

Was N.L. ERA titlist in 1958 and finished second in 1959 . . . Won first All Star game in 1961 and prevented A.L. from breaking tie in second game . . . With none out and Kaline on with potential winning run in ninth, Stu fanned Mantle, Howard and Sievers and game was called because of rain at that point . . . Pitched 1.1 innings in two series games for Giants in 1962 but had no decisions . . .

Only dull spot in his three year career with Birds was second half of 1964 campaign . . . Thru the first game of a July 12 doubleheader in Detroit Stu was 4-2 with 16 saves, but for the rest of the season was only 3-5 with 3 saves . . .

Almost never comes into game unless score is extremely close . . . Last year he rarely yielded runs charged to his predecessor unlike many relievers . . . Contrary to popular belief, he doesn't throw a knuckleball . . . Insurance broker in off-season . . . Excellent bridge player . . . Served in Navy from December 1945 to October 1947 . . . Broke into organized ball in Maryland (Salisbury) in the old Eastern Shore League.

Stu and wife, Jayne, have been married since 1952 . . . They have three children: Scott (10/15/54), Lori (7/6/56) and Kim (9/12/57) . . .
